COMMUNITY CLUB MAY BE NAMED THE OPEN FORUM

Last Lecture In Community Club Series Tuesday Evening-Name of Organization May Be Changed.

The coure of lectures given in this city under the auspices of the Maysville Community Club by members of the Faculty of the University of Kentucky, will close Tuesday evening with an address on the "Social Functions of Religion," by Dr. P. P. Boyd at the court house at 7:30.

In compliance with the constitution, notice has been given at two previous meetings of a proposed change in the name of the Maysville Community Club to the Maysville Open Forum or the Maysville Citizens Assembly Some have though that the word, club, carried the idea of exclusiveness, whereas the purpose of the organization is to include all who wish to attend the meetings.

All are free to enjoy whatever is offered, to take part in the discussions and to bring up for discussion any subject of public interest. Each person present Tuesday evening is as much as any other entitled to discuss and vote on the change of name and to suggest appropriate names other than those that have been suggested.

The meeting will open promptly at 7:30. Let us give Dr. Boyd a full house.

WEDDING IS ANNOUNCED.

The wedding of Miss Florence Dod- tists. son, youngest daughter of Mr. Almer Dodson, and Mr. Robert Utter, of Cincinnati, was announced at a party given at the home of the bride's father Saturday evening. Miss Dodson and Mr. Utter were married in Dayton, Ky .. by the Episcopal minister on April 24 and kept their marriage a secret from their many friends. The announcement party was a very delightful affair. Miss Dodson is a most accomplished and popular young lady while her husband is a prominent young Cincinnati hustness man. The couple will make their home in Cincinnati.

MARKSBERRY IS REFUSED NEW TRIAL.

Judge C. D. Newell has overruled the motion of Thomas Marksberry, con- tor of the Lexington Herald, spent victed last week at Brooksville of murder and sentenced to life imprisonment for a new trial. Time has been given the defendant for an appeal to the Court of Appeals which will likely be taken. Judge Newell is to be congratulated upon the manner of handling the Marksberry trial from beginning to end. It is the unanimous opinion of friends of the defendant as well as those representing the Commonwealth that justice has been done and that Judge Newell's rulings have been fair and impartial in every respect.
